RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

Vowell, Chief Special Master:

On March 19, 2015, Rita Glynn filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² [the "Vaccine Act" or "Program"]. Petitioner alleges that as a result of a tetanus-diphtheria-acellular pertussis vaccination on April 30, 2012, she suffered brachial neuritis, an impingement syndrome, and frozen shoulder. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On May 29, 2015, respondent filed her Rule 4(c) report in which she concedes that petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent's Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Specifically, respondent indicates that "petitioner's alleged injury is consistent with a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration ('SIRVA') and 'satisfies the Althen requirements and that her alleged injury was caused-in-fact by a vaccination." Id. at 3. Respondent further indicates that no other cause has been identified for petitioner's condition, and petitioner has suffered “the residual effects of her condition for more than six months.” Id.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all "§" references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2006).

In view of respondent’s concession and the evidence before me, I find that petitioner is entitled to compensation.
